Living With Epilepsy (Living With (Raintree Steck-Vaughn))

Synopsis

This book explains how epilepsy affects people and their families and helps the reader understand that people with epilepsy can lead normal and fulfilling lives. By following specific individuals and quoting their experiences it gives a vivid insight into what it is like to have epilepsy. Specially commissioned photographs contribute to a superbly helpful book. In addition it supplies useful addresses and details of organizations to contact for support. --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.
